

Requirements for Schengen Visa and Airport Transit Applications

The German Embassy in Accra is responsible for processing visa applications of residents of GHANA, LIBERIA and SIERRA LEONE.

The German Embassy in Accra processes Schengen visa applications on behalf of ESTONIA for residents of GHANA.

All applicants have to apply in person at the German Embassy. Appointments can only be booked through the Embassy's Online Appointment System.

Please note that incomplete applications cannot be accepted. In this case the appointment will have to be re-scheduled. To find out whether you are exempt from booking a Schengen visa appointment and qualify for Walk-In, check here.

PLEASE NOTE:

- A 'Schengen' visa is for a short stay (e.g. tourism, a family or friend visit, a business trip) of up to 90 days in an 180-day period within the following countries:
Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxemburg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and Liechtenstein.
- The visa application has to be presented to the Embassy of the country of main destination (determined by the purpose of the journey and the length of stay).
- The processing of Schengen visa applications in general takes 7 days. Applicants are encouraged to submit their applications well in advance of their intended travel date to allow sufficient time for processing. Applications can be submitted up to 3 months before the intended travel date.
- The visa fee is 60.00 Euro, only payable in cash in Ghana Cedi at the current exchange rate of the Embassy. The processing fee is not refundable in case of denial of the visa.
- Visa application forms are free of charge and are available on the website of the Embassy.
- Documents handed in prior to the appointment date cannot be accepted.
- In addition to the standard requirements, additional supporting documents may be required, depending on the specific nature of your application. The Embassy does not return forms, photos or any documents in case of refusal or if the application is withdrawn. Fraudulent documents may be sent to the relevant authorities.
- If the visa is granted, it is your duty to verify whether the information printed on the visa sticker is correct and complete and to report any errors to the Embassy immediately.
- In case of visa refusal, the applicant or an authorized third party may appeal in writing against the refusal stating the file number and mailing address (P.O. Box) of the applicant. Further supporting documents and background information should be provided with the appeal letter. Please note that processing of appeals in general takes at least 4 weeks.

I. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS (Checklist) ☑:

Every applicant is asked to provide the following mandatory documents (original plus 1 legible copy of each document, unless otherwise specified) at the appointment day, after having booked an appointment via the Embassy's website: www.accra.diplo.de/appointment

- completed and signed visa application form for Schengen visa (download the application form here) – no copy required!
- signed declaration according to Sec. 54 Par. 2 No. 8 of the German Residence Act
- 1 recent passport picture with white background (please do not attach to form!)
- visa fee of 60.00 Euro, only payable in cash in Ghana Cedi
- valid passport and 1 copy of the passport data page

Validity of passport must exceed the duration of intended stay in Germany by at least 3 months. Passport must contain at least 2 blank pages and must have been issued within the past 10 years.

- previous passports, if available
- original birth certificate of the applicant, based on the first registration
- if minors (below 18 years of age) are not accompanied by both parents: parental consent of both parents and copies of their passport/photo ID. In case of sole parental custody, adequate proof has to be provided (e.g. court order, death certificate of other parent).
- flight reservation for round-trip (no ticket required)
- travel health insurance, covering entire duration of stay and valid for all Schengen States
- proof of accommodation / hotel reservation
- proof of sufficient financial means for intended stay

a) Generally all costs of the trip need to be covered by the applicant. Only a personal and globally accessible bank account is suited as proof of financial means. Proof of financial means include bank statements and payslips.

Please be informed that the Embassy does not accept or consider bank statements from unlicensed microfinance institutions or unlicensed banks. In general, lists of officially licensed finance institutions can be found on the homepage of the respective banks in charge of licensing (e.g. www.bog.gov.gh). It is strongly advised against using a bank statement from a microfinance institution or rural bank for a visa application.

b) If costs of the trip cannot be covered by applicant: original formal obligation (“Verpflichtungserklärung”) from the host/institution according to §§ 66 to 68 of the German Residence Act, confirmed by the local immigration office in Germany. Only well-known, major German companies may present an invitation letter instead, which includes a reference to §§ 66 to 68 of the German Residence Act (e.g. Siemens, BASF, Bosch).

- proof of social and economic ties to country of residence
 - a) marriage certificate and birth certificates of dependent children, if applicable
 - b) current personal bank statements of the last 3 months
 - c) for children and students: official leave letter from school or university, including proof of paid school fees and reports
 - d) if employed: letter of introduction from employer and payslips of the last 3 months
 - e) if self-employed: business registration certificate & "Form A", tax clearance certificate, proof of active business (bills of lading, import declaration forms, invoices)
