

Visa for family reunion - Ghana -

Please read the following information carefully. This information leaflet includes check lists on the required documents for the different visa categories for family reunion.

In order to apply for a visa to join a family member for a permanent stay in Germany all applicants have to apply in person at the Embassy.

Appointments can only be booked through the Embassy's Online Appointment System. To book an appointment, please visit the website of the Embassy.

Please be on time for your appointment, the time of your appointment is mentioned in your booking confirmation. Applicants who are too late for their appointment will not be allowed to submit their applications. In this case the appointment will have to be re-scheduled.

Please note that incomplete applications cannot be accepted. The appointment would have to be re-scheduled if you hand in an incomplete application. All documents must be handed in by the applicant at the appointment. Documents sent directly to the Embassy prior to the appointment cannot be considered.

The visa procedure may take several months, since all applications have to be referred to the German alien's authority at the place of residence of the family member you want to join. Therefore, the Embassy has little influence on the actual processing time.

Since Ghanaian documents may not be legalised, document verification might become necessary in due course of the application process. Further information is provided on the website of the Embassy at: www.accra.diplo.de

In case of enquiries please refrain from calling. Instead we kindly ask you to contact the Embassy via e-mail: visa@accr.diplo.de

You will be directed to the check list for your visa category when clicking on the category below. In addition to the standard requirements other supporting documents may be required, depending on the specific nature of your application.

- 1) Joining a spouse. You need to apply for this visa if you want to join your spouse in Germany.

A visa for the purpose of getting married in Germany can only be granted once all the legal requirements have been fulfilled and the marriage is imminent. The Embassy, therefore, recommends contacting the competent German civil registry well in advance to obtain information about their requirements and to take the next steps. At the time of the interview at the Embassy, the applicant needs to provide a confirmation from the German civil registry that the document verification has been completed.

Please note that all the documents which have been presented to at the German civil registry will have to be presented at the German Embassy, at least as copies.

Additional documents to be presented at a later stage:

The visa can only be granted if the German civil registry office has issued a confirmation stating that a date for the intended marriage has been scheduled (“Bescheinigung über die Anmeldung der Eheschließung”). The Embassy will ask for this confirmation once all the other requirements are fulfilled. Thus, this confirmation does not have to be presented on the day of the visa application.

Once all the requirements are fulfilled and the visa can be granted, a formal obligation according to § 66 - 68 of the German Residence Act confirmed by the local immigration office in Germany (“Verpflichtungserklärung”) will have to be presented for the time period of entering Germany until solemnizing the marriage.

It is also recommended to have sufficient health insurance coverage for the time period of entering Germany until solemnizing the marriage.
